

ALL ABOUT US

Russell is a professional services firm with 200+ professionals, providing construction and development services across the country. Since its inception in 1983, Russell's culture promotes a collaborative work environment that strives to exceed our clients' expectations and provide life-time career opportunities for our professionals. Headquartered in Davenport, Iowa, with offices in St. Louis and Kansas City, Missouri, Russell has delivered more than $2 billion in projects across 32 states. We remain a market leader in our core markets, including new construction and complex additions and renovations. At Russell, we are creating more than a project - we are building great people, relationships, and community.

Russell's other offices include Russell HBD, located in St. Louis, MO which resulted from a formal merger with HBD Construction in 2020. Our Kansas City, MO office - Russel Merit - was formed through a merger with Merit Construction in 2022.
